

The Vigil 2020

“He is not here... he has gone before into Galilee”.

What Shocking news! So, the women ran to announce the Good News to the “still” frightened disciples.

It is not over; this news stuns the disciples. But the women tell of a new direction, into Galilee. There is a new chapter to this story of salvation.

Tonight’s readings trace a long journey of our salvation history:

- From the beginning, the story of Creation
- Then from Exodus, the story of the Passover
- The story of the Promised Land and the Prophets
- This culminates in the Birth, Death, and Resurrection of Jesus, the Christ.

This is what we celebrate tonight!

In the weeks to come we will hear how the Church Communities grew through the preaching of Peter, John, Barnabus and Paul in the Acts of the Apostles.

And now it is our turn. Through the anointing of the Holy Spirit and the gift of Eucharist, we now must write a new chapter. One that speaks of the presence of the Spirit of God alive and well in THIS age. Then, like the women in our Gospel tonight, we must give our account of the resurrection and Life of the Christ. What will be your contribution to this STORY?
